

DECONSTRUCTING DRAMATIC MEANING IN SUDDENLY LAST SUMMER

Dramatic Meaning is created through the Elements of Drama, Dramatic Styles, Conventions and Performance Techniques. Dramatic Meaning is communicated between the performers, the world of the play and the audience. Dramatic Meaning is always open to interpretation and there is never one set meaning in a production.

Deconstruct how the Dramatic Meaning about humans devouring one another is made explicit to the audience through the Elements of Drama, Dramatic Styles, Conventions and Performance Techniques.

SET DESIGN

PERFORMANCE TECHNIQUES - SOUND, LIGHTING AND LIVE VIDEO

Tennessee Williams once said,
“We all devour each other, in our fashion.” How has this cannibalistic concept been created in Suddenly Last Summer?

LANGUAGE AND DIALOGUE

ATMOSPHERE